Madison House Brunch

9–11 a.m.

Madison House will welcome former volunteers and program directors for a Reunions Weekend brunch to celebrate more than 40 years of leadership, service and community. Reconnect with the staff and fellow alumni, and meet current students and board members to find out all about current programs and volunteer opportunities. Madison House is still going strong, with more than 3,000 volunteers serving the local community on a weekly basis. Join us for this celebration of service, past and present!

SCHOOL LUNCHES— Noon–1:30 p.m.

Architecture

Campbell Hall North Terrace

All reunion classes are invited to celebrate the legacy and future of the A-school by gathering for this informal picnic lunch outside Campbell Hall. Bring your family, see faculty members and tour the new building additions with old friends.

College of Arts & Sciences

The Big Tent (Alderman Library Plaza)

All Arts & Sciences graduates are invited to the College lunch with Dean Meredith Woo. Bring your family and introduce them to old friends while enjoying lunch with some of your favorite faculty members. Children's activities will be provided.

Commerce

Rouss & Robertson Halls, East Lawn

Join Dean Carl Zeithaml and fellow alumni for a casual buffet and great conversation. Take a self-guided tour of the building and enjoy a scrolling photo exhibit. We will have a moon bounce and activities for the kids, so bring your whole family!

Education

Breneman Courtyard, Bavaro Hall

Join Dean Robert Pianta and your friends from the Curry School of Education in the Breneman Courtyard between Bavaro and Ruffner Halls.

Engineering and Applied Science

Thornton Hall, Darden Court

Join Dean Jim Aylor (Engr '68), faculty members and Engineering reunion alumni and their families for a delicious lunch, live music and a variety of activities, including arts and crafts and games for children. Guided tours of Wilsdorf Hall will also be leaving from Darden Courtyard to explore some of the cutting-edge research being done at the School of Engineering and Applied Science.

Nursing Alumni Luncheon & Awards Presentation

Noon–2 p.m. • McLeod Hall

Nursing alumni will find plenty that's new in the school while enjoying the pleasure of old friendships at this annual celebration. Meet Dean Dorrie Fontaine and congratulate Alumni Award winners. We will recognize the nursing reunion classes with the highest percentage of participation in attendance and in giving. After the luncheon, tours will be available of Claude Moore Nursing Education Building, McLeod Hall and McKim Hall.

SUNDAY

"Come As You Go" Brunch featuring Larry Sabato's Crystal Ball

9 a.m.–noon • Aquatic & Fitness Center

Gather with classmates one more time and enjoy a light brunch together while sharing stories of the weekend. Then listen to professor Larry Sabato (Col '74) share his reflections on the 2010 midterm elections as well as his predictions for the upcoming 2012 presidential election.

Tribute to Dean Sylvia Terry and Black Alumni Reception

Sylvia Terry, associate dean of the U.Va. Office of African-American Affairs, retired in June 2009 after 29 years. Among her accomplishments at the University was the award-winning Peer Adviser Program, which has made a major contribution to U.Va.'s 15-year record of having the highest black graduation rate of all public universities. The Alumni Association and Ridley at the University would like to invite all alumni, family and friends to this tribute and reception as we officially honor Sylvia Terry's dedication and commitment to the University.
